OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 19 June 1962

25X1 1. [] Al Reynolds telephoned asking if we had any more transcripts on the Captive Nations hearings. We will supply him with additional copies as we get them. He also asked whether the advise on this.

25X1 2. [] Mr. Leahy, State Department, telephoned to advise that he and Henry Ford had met with Representative Oren Harris concerning future hearings on the amendments to the Communications Act, H. R. 11732. He indicated Mr. Harris appeared cooperative and understood some of the problems involved. Possibly hearings can be held before the Commerce Committee the second week in July. Leahy plans to meet with the Staff Director in the near future and asked if we wished to accompany him. Also, Leahy advised Senate Foreign Relations will hold hearings on this bill on Thursday of this week with George Ball as the witness. Other matters will be discussed at the session.
He will have appropriate DOD witnesses present, however.

25X1 3. [] John Newhouse of the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee telephoned to inquire if Bernard Fall, an expert on Southeast Asia, associated with Howard University, was an American citizen or not. After checking with [] I advised 25X1 Newhouse that according to our information Fall has been a French citizen since 1949, having been born in Austria.

25X1 4. [] Claude Desautels from the White House telephoned following a query to him from Representative Dan Flood concerning [] who apparently is being separated in the surplus program. Apparently Flood made a strong pitch for their review of the case. I will check and advise Desautels further.
